

Ben Lee, Naked

Well we all just want
a way to remember
a way to surrender
a way to forever

And we all just want someone to speak to someone to see through someone to be through

so don't hide your love inside
in the end other people they just pretend you know we never could fake it
when we're naked

yeah don't hide the love inside
you know we never could fake it
when we're naked

a way to stay broken
a way to stay open
a way to keep hoping

we all just want
a reason to mess up
a reason to fess up
a reason to dress up

you know we never could fake it
when we're naked

yeah don't hide your love inside
you know we never could fake it

it's underneath your skin
it's always on your mind you wanna let love in
but these are dangerous times

yeah these are dangerous times

so you gotta remember that time is forever
as long as you surrender

yeah
