

Ben Lee, Since I Met You

I have very flat feet
My face is asymmetrical
My ears, they protrude from my head
I am short-sided

But since I met you, since I met you, I feel perfect in everyway
Since I met you, since I met you, I feel perfect in everyway

I can be too competitive
A little bit hard on myself and others
I'm not very good at remembering birthdays
I should probably call my mother more often

Yeah, but since I met you, since I met you, I feel perfect in everyway
Since I met you, since I met you, I feel perfect in everyway
Since I met you, since I met you, I feel perfect in everyway
Since I met you since I met you ,I feel perfect.. I feel perfect
I feel perfect

All my songs, use the same four chords
I can be somewhat too literal
I blurt out my feelings when I probably shouldn't
You see babe,
I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you, I love you

And since I met you, since I met you I feel perfect in everyway
Since I met you, since I met you, I feel perfect in everyway
Since I met you, since I met you, I feel perfect in everyway
Since I met you, since I met you, I feel perfect
I feel perfect in everyway
