

Ben Lee, Whatever It Is

Are you changing, are you changing, are you changing.
Do you know it, do you feel it, do you know it.
But you're waiting, why're you waiting, why're you waiting.
Just do it, whatever it is.
there are secrets, there are secrets, there are secrets. there are places, there are places, you can go to they might tell you, yeah they'll tell you, that you shouldn't just do it, whatever it is, whatever it is,

just do it, whatever it is, whatever it is,
go do it, whatever it is, whatever it is,
just do it, whatever it is.

and you're dancing, and you're looking kinda crazy and your arms, are making little circles there are reasons, there are reasons, you can find out so do it, whatever it is, whatever it is,

just do it, whatever it is, whatever it is,
go do it, whatever it is, whatever it is,
whatever it is, whatever it is.

it's so quiet, it's so quiet, it's so quiet and you're dreaming, and you're dreaming, and you're dreaming I turn to you and say - awake is the new sleep, awake is the new sleep so wake up. And do it, whatever it is. Just do it, whatever it is.
'cause awake is the new sleep, awake is the new sleep
so wake up
wake up.
and do it. Whatever it is, whatever it is,
just do it, whatever it is, whatever it is,
go do it, whatever it is, whatever it is just do it, whatever it is, whatever it is.
