

Ben Moody, Never Turn Back

Holding tight, take this last breath
As the waters rush in (Is it all a sin?)
Come inside child, my day is gone
Close my eyes to the sun
I'll never turn back now
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
I'll never turn back now

Lessons learned now mean nothing
Only wars raged in vein (It's all over soon)
Lay me down child, I'm weak here (Never turn back now)
All my will now is gone
I'll never turn back now
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
I'll never turn back now

I'm free
There's nothing on earth than can hold me, down
I'm standing
Made up my mind
And I'll never, never, never turn back now
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
(Never turn back now)
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
(Never turn back now)
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
Never turn back now
(Never turn back now)
I'll never turn back now
