

Benassi Bros., I feel so fine

Lost in your eyes and i never can say goodbye
Lost in your smile and i know it could be so fine
Let me get into your world it will be forever
Show me the secrets,the beauty you hide inside
I feel so fine
We got to be together, stay with me
I feel so fine
We got to be together, come to me
Such a feeling
Open your heart and just give it to my desire
Open your arms and set my soul on fire
You're all i need and i want you to be my lover
Picking me up like the sun you just take me higher
I feel so fine
We got to be together, stay with me
I feel so fine
We got to be together, come to me
Such a feeling
I'm begging you for your love
I'm begging you for your touch
I'm begging you for you babe, i feel so fine
When you touch me in my heart i feel so fine
When you look into my soul i feel all right
When you speak inside my dreams you light the night,
Such a feeling
Have you ever had a feeling just like this?
Have you ever seen the beauty of my kiss?
Did you ever think this love could be your bliss?
Such a feeling
I'm lost in you,
I just can't say goodbye,
Let me get into your world.
You know that it would be forever,
Show me your secrets,
Show it babe, i'm waitin' for you.
