

Benga, Pour Your Love (ft. Marlene)

Pour your love all over me
Pour your love all over me

I know we've got potential
Make me feel I'm on a high
I dive into the ocean
I'm driven by emotions this time
Don't talk about tomorrow
Cause there's no need to hesitate
So cut the definition for limited edition
You and I

I don't need your sympathy
Pity is my enemy
Just pour your love all over me
Pour your love all over me
I don't need no guarantee
Here and now it's you and me
Just pour your love all over me
Pour your love all over me

My heart belongs to no one
Why did you think I'd give it away?
And I can be as good as a thousand me
Just stay
Don't talk about tomorrow
Cause there's no need to hesitate
So cut the definition for limited edition
You and I

I don't need your sympathy
Pity is my enemy
Just pour your love all over me
Pour your love all over me
I don't need no guarantee
Here and now it's you and me
Just pour your love all over me
Pour your love all over me

Pour your love, pour your love, pour your love
Pour your love

I don't need your sympathy
Pity is my enemy
Just pour your love all over me
Pour your love all over me
I don't need no guarantee
Here and now it's you and me
Just pour your love all over me
Pour your love all over me
Pour your love, pour your love, pour your love
Pour your love

Pour your love all over me
