

Benjamin Kim, My Life (Only With You)

Why does life have to give,
Every moment a reason to live.
I try to say that you're the only one,
But now I look on this day for me to come, to you...

Life has brought to me (only to you),
Time has forgiven me (only for you),
Life has its memories (only with you),
I want to stay (only with you)...

Life has it's meanings
While it tries to forgive me,
Everything has a reason
When it moves on.

Can't believe my situation
Or this thing called infatuation,
How about the consolation
And throw out the stipulations...

Life has brought to me (only to you),
Time has forgiven me (only for you),
Life has its memories (only with you),
I want to stay (only with you)...

My life, can't go on
Any further down the road,
My life, seems so endless
Until I find any hope...

Life has brought to me (only to you),
Time has forgiven me (only for you),
Life has its memories (only with you),
I want to stay (only with you)...

Life has brought to me (only to you),
Time has forgiven me (only for you),
Life has its memories (only with you),
I want to stay (only with you)...

With you, with you (only with you),
With you, with you (only with you),
With you, with you...
Ohhh...
Only with you...
