

Benjamin Kim, One More Time

By having us not together,
If you thought that was for the better.
I've been doing this all along,
Ever since day one.
Running out in the middle of the night,
Doing things for you so we don't have to fight.
I cannot believe it's happening now,
But the best of me will be coming out...

Because I...
I don't want to lose you.
I'd give my heart,
For anything,
To see you once again...
Now I...
I want you baby.
I'd give my life,
For all time,
For you to live again...

Your picture is here near dear in my heart,
To me its better if we were not apart.
You've meant so much to me in my life,
If you were here everything would be right.
It's been a constant struggle since that day,
The most important person had flown away.
To me your more than just a friend I know,
A person I can grow with when I am old...

Because I...
I don't want to lose you.
I'd give my heart,
For anything,
To see you once again...
Now I...
I want you baby.
I'd give my life,
For all time,
For you to live again...

The time has come,
You have to go.
Please stay longer as the sun shines low.
So this is it,
You cannot stay.
This one is for you my baby...

Because I...
I don't want to lose you.
I'd give my heart,
For anything,
To see you once again...
Now I...
I want you baby.
I'd give my life,
For all time,
For you to live again...

Because I...
I don't want to lose you.
I'd give my heart,
For anything,
To see you once again...
Now I...

I want you baby.
I'd give my life,
For all time,
For you to live again...
