

Benny Sings, Pyjamas (ft Remi Wolf)

We can take a walk on Cobana Beach
Read a book or two 'bout the birds in Cali
We could see a movie 'bout Sao Paolo
Have you seen the new documentary

Candy Bars and wine in the winter
Boy you got me wrapped round your finger
Ooh I just can't wait to take you home
Oh no this can't wait till tomorrow
My heart's skipping beats like a bongo
Beach is so predictable
I'll take you to the Poconos

Hey say what we're gonna do today
They say don't let it slip away
I wanna be in pyjamas
I like to wear my Havaianas
They say don't let it slip away

Wait a minute forst things first
Eat a salmon sandwich with some pickles
Believe me baby wanna quench your thirst
But let me run to CVS real quick though

Candy Bars and wine in the winter
Boy I got me wrapped round my finger
Ooh I just can't wait to take you home
Oh no this can't wait till tomorrow
My heart's skipping beats like a bongo
Beach is so predictable
I'll take you to the Poconos

Hey say what we're gonna do today
They say don't let it slip away
I wanna be in pyjamas
I like to wear my Havaianas
They say don't let it slip away
