

Benton Paul, Good Habit

Pull away, bounce back
It's automatic the attraction
Broken pieces on the floor
Cover up the wound
Pretend it's not a real addiction
But you keep comin' back for more!
'Cause she's a good habit and
You're not ready to break it
Good habit and you just wanna keep it
Good habit and you're not ready to leave it,
Yeah, good habit
Round two, fight back!
You can't deny, you're torn inside
Should you stay or should you go?
She's not a perfect ten
But when she knocks you let her in
And end up where you were before
'Cause she's a good habit and
You're not ready to break it
Good habit and you just wanna keep it
Good habit and you're not ready to leave it
Yeah!
Good habit, not ready to break it
Good habit and you just want
Good habit, not ready to leave it
Yeah
'Cause she's a good habit and
You're not ready to break it
Good habit and you just wanna keep it
Good habit and you're not ready to leave it,
Yeah, good habit
