

Berlin, Hideaway

Cool and so breezy
Take it or leave it
Keeping your distance
Arrows to your heart just bounce away
The poison is spreading
I see you bleeding
So cleanse yourself with tears of salvation
Hideaway in my arms

Forget the pain
Where's the shame
Cry away there's no harm

Faster and faster
Lost in a nightmare

It's time that you wake up
Love is getting closer and closer
Falling through thin air
From haircuts and makeup
No need to be frightened

You'll be my hero
Trust in the love that you dream of Freedom at last
Start back at zero
Throw off your mask
Trust in a needed friend
