

Berman, Stay With Me

looked at the clouds today everyone will fall someday just like the dust will fade six feet deep in front of me i wanna run away, seize the day

not a sound or word to say dreaming never felt this way nothing short of apathy speak to me forever because Your voice is so pleasant stay with me forever because Your face is so present stared in the Sun today everything has turned to gray let go of all my pain soon enough i'll feel the rain

all alone in apathy
