

Beseech, Sunset 28

"..This song is dedicated to Jennifer Berg that lost her world 00-05-28"

Carry on even if it's hard, with love Klas

Give her love and protection

Give her all, all the things she need

Give her faith and a reason

Make her feel brighter than the sun

Tell her that she is special

Tell her that she is valuable

Carry on for tomorrow

Carry on even if its hard

Leave him in the sunset 28

To remember the moments in the sun

And the diamond that lost her world today

Will keep on shining brighter than the sun

Ease her pain and her guilts

Tell her that no one really knows

Help her find new sololutions

Help her while she is still a child

And so it was time to leave him

Without no farewell

We will never forget the moments in the sun

But the diamond

That lost her world that day

Will keep on shining brighter than the sun

Leave him in the sunset 28

To remember the moments in the sun

And the diamond that lost her world today

Will keep on shining brighter than the sun
