

Beth Hart, Mama

Mother may I, and I would say Yes sweet baby take it away
It won't be long Just just remember that Powerful is the woman in you and stay true now & she'd come to me
when fire & water was gone to caress the empty with a song Saying why cry for anger that bullet the sky
just remember
& I'll remember & mama
& I'll get by
& I know my face
seems crazed & wild but I got her eyes
the mama's child am I She's blessed with grace is smooth as a line & when I shade
she helps me shine & she comes to me
when there's nothing
I believe & holds me so high yes I am free saying why hold the anger
it won't let you fly
just remember
and I'll remember cause mama mama and I'll get by Confused by my own illusion
she said that it's only my pride & even the simplest solutions still won't heal my mind
So I'll remember
I'll remember & I'll get by
