

Beth, Sad Song

It's so sad, and I'm sorry
How can I turn back the story

Look at me , can you feel it too
That I'm down on my knees beggin' you

To come back home soon, soon
To come back home soon...

Maybe I'm not like you thought
Maybe I'm the one who should found my own way home

But that's not true, let's forget about it
'Cause I do believe in you and in our love

So come back home soon, soon
So come back home soon....I miss you....
