

Bethany Joy Lenz, Quicksand

Id like to say
I make good use of my time
While youve been away
And its true
Ive been at my piano everyday
Thinking of you
They talk around
I hear them whisper
Its the funniest thing really
They think youre gone forever
I know the truth
Its just getting hard
To believe it
And they all tell me
Its over
Even the stars are alligned
And I..
I follow the sign so clearly
And still I fall in
Quicksands pulling me down
I follow the sign so clearly
And still they catch me
Quicksands pulling me down
Im not the same
I cant sleep nights
And now Im calling your name
When I do
And yet without you
They say I get on better
And better and better
When they all tell me
Its over
Ill damn the gods until the stars
Are alligned and I
I follow the sign so clearly
And still I fall in
Quicksands pulling me down
I follow the sign so clearly
And still they catch me
Quicksands pulling me down
Look at my life and look at my face
Cant you see my heart bleeding
Down my sleeve
So youre holding my hand
And holding my heart
But I just wanna feel your breath
Inside me so I can breathe
Somewhere in the distance
I get to speak a grace
And hold on to something
That makes me feel
Like Im alive
Its never too soon
Its never too late
So I start screaming out
I see your face I see your hand
Reaching out
And I yell at you and say
I follow the sign so clearly
And still they caught me
Quicksands pulling me down

I follow the sign so clearly
And still I fall in
I know you can feel me arising
And Im on fire
If you keep on pulling me out
Ah ah ah ah
Look at my life and look
At my face
And look where Ive came
To get to this place
With you
Being here to sit and lay
At your feet and rest
In your arms
And listen to your heart beat
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh
Oh oh oh.
