

Better Than Ezra, Long Lost

Are you lost?
Do you find life turning out
Not quite the way you planned?
Come around stay awhile
That's OK That's Alright
Couldn't get to sleep so talk about it.
Let's talk about it right now.
Here it comes on my head again
I guess I'm born to be the long lost friend.
Long Lost Friend
Are you cold?
Is there no place better, safer, friendlier than this?
Call me up, I'm alone.
That's ok, That's Alright
Rather it be me than go without it.
So don't think about it right now.
Here it comes on my head again
I guess I'm born to be the long lost friend.
Long lost friend
I've given ballast
Held you up when you were failing down
What happens when I'm not around?
Friend?
Friend?
Long Lost Friend
