Better Than Ezra, Still Life With Cooley

Everybody talking saying you will be walking This neighborhood will never be the same

You said we'd understand.

You found out what's happening now.

So we all sat down and you broke the news.

Now Daddy don't love her anymore.

It's still life with Cooley

Now Daddy don't love her anymore.

It's just still life with Coolly.

All your friends show on time.

They come in bringing red wine.

You said if it's over then we'll go in style.

You better best take care keep one hand to your ear

So you're not left hanging when they're finally gone.

[Chorus:]

Watcha' saying?

You're going to stay of at St. Madigan's?

(reeled in again)

You're just fooling around fooling around

People hanging with their good friends

Listening to those old songs.

Now Daddy don't love her anymore.

It's still life with Cooley

Now Daddy don't love her anymore.

It's just still life

It's just still life with Cooley.
