

Bettie Serveert, 2nd Time

Started to fade
Innocent but odd enough anyway
And caused instant down
Then you shed me some tears
And glued them all around
The part that interferes, singing
You couldn't tell me all those years
You got the some heartache
And now you've got it right
There's always a, a 2nd time
Always a, a 2nd time
Always a 2nd time
In your mind
Oh, my God, they say deeply in love
Even though this ain't real
Pretty soon you'll find out
You had to turn to see me
Every now and then
Don't you need that?
Probably so
The truth was in the other eye
And honest to God you had me near you all the time
And then you say, oh, but never mind
There's always a, a 2nd time
Always a 2nd time
Always a, a 2nd time
In your mind
