

Between The Buried And Me, Alaska

The road is dry Im fucking delirious right now life goes on glorious evening of nodding and jump starts I need to make a personal dance party The brain works very weird at this hour not the best time for lyrics I suppose keep writing, keep dreaming Nope, can't be awake and dream, drift in and out, in and out eye motions in out heat lightning, scares us both the only two people awake at this fucking hour I won't remember this in the morning at least I wrote this all down please pick the right song the one that keeps the eyes wide creepy
yes, creepy
the idea of control controlling death with alertness when is the fucking sun coming up Then it all changes, same scenery but sun involved shouldn't be much different
