

Beyoncé, Control

I gotta give up to quite the storm that rages inside the way that I hit my damage part you gave me away

And I've had enough
I imagine the words I say to you
I'm finding strange to follow it through
I'm ready to change

[chorus]

I'm letting go, I'm letting go
We're only friends, We're only friends
Tonight we'll let the music free our soul
So let it show, So let it show
We can pretend, we can pretend
We only find ourselves by losing all
Control (x8)

I'm hoping enough show me a sign I can't relieve It's crazy emotions flow through me
I'm gonna explode
You take me away
and what is my ordinary life
I won't be afraid of what we might find a love I can hold

[chorus]

I'm letting go, I'm letting go
We're only friends, We're only friends
Tonight we'll let the music free our soul
So let it show, So let it show
We can pretend, we can pretend
We only find ourselves by losing all
Control

Nothing injured nothing gained New horizon ready to play with every breath you take me away

[chorus]

I'm letting go, I'm letting go
We're only friends, We're only friends
Tonight we'll let the music free our soul
So let it show, So let it show
We can pretend, we can pretend
We only find ourselves by losing all
Control (x8)
