

Bic Runga, A Day Like Today

(Something Good EP)

Lala lala-la
Lala lala-la
Lala lala-la

Lala lala-la
Lala lala-la
Lala lala-la

There's nothing like a cool autumn breeze
Sending the past up with the leaves
Watching all the clothes on the line
In a sidestepping dance
With the neighbouring trees

Lala lala-la
Lala lala-la
Lala lala-la

There's nothing like an echoing hole
A headrush of sky
A knock at the door
A message on your voicemail tonight
The answering-machine taking the calls

It's an honest mistake
Falling in love
At any given time
We could get carried away
It could've happen to anyone

On a day like today
A Day like today
On a day like today
Day like today

Day like today
On a day like today
A day like today

There's nothing like a cool autumn breeze
Sending the past up with the leaves
Watching all the clothes on the line
In a sidestepping dance
With the neighbouring trees

It's an honest mistake
Falling in love
At any given time
We could get carried away
It could've happen to anyone

On a day like today
A Day like today
On a day like today
Day like today

Day like today
On a day like today
