

Bif Naked, You Are The Master

I am tied up in the burning sun
Baby, you are my only shade
You're the bowl of water beyond my reach
I can only move the distance of this chain
I chew anything you will give
Eat anything - even my own words
Scramble for any morsel
You will throw
You scatter hope like scraps of food

I guess you are the master
I am the dog I am the dog
Waiting for you to love me

I am jumping on you for affection
I would love to lick your face
You scold me - you push me off
I'm your loyal bitch - a man's best friend
I lie here and lick my wounds
From my little bed of wishes
I run to you in my dreams
I pine for you in my life

I guess you are the master
I am the dog I am the dog
Waiting for you to love me

I have no sense of time at all
20 minutes or 20 years
It's all the same
I am your muse
You are my muse
Broken hearts
Baby please show me some mercy
Don't put me down
