

Bif Naked, You Got The Job

If smiling raver chubby girls with fragrant barretted blond curls won't lead you to stray...you got the job

If you don't mind cigarette smoke or my addiction to diet coke and sex night and day...you got the job

If you promise not to make me cry and never ever tell a lie...when I'm on the road...you got the job

If you love me just for who I am I'll love you back forever and, baby, I'm sold...you got the job!
