

Biffy Clyro, Iname

i'd like to be in a bucket of pee until everything else is just fine you would believe what i cannot deceive until everything else is just mine

i am over you
i am over

i'd like to be all the love that i feel for the woman who keeps me alive you'd like to know what went into the home that covers me now i'm alive

i am over you
til the memories complete iname

i am over you

i am over you

i will undo half of the things that i should've been through i will have done everything else that you needed to do needed to
