

Biffy Clyro, Toys toys toys choke toys toys toys

Would you change, I have, fallen in love with you, anyway (there's something, there's something, there's something, there's something, there's something, now)

Have a dance, I will, easily, lose it, anyway (come dancing, come dancing, come dancing, come dancing, come dancing, now)

Shouty Bit!

(If you can make out what they are saying then please mail me!)

In the shadows of your eyes,
you look like God, I will be right here

When your life's been shattered
rinse your emotion, i will be there

If even the stars, fall from your eyes
we fall back and burn in the night reach with your mind, never goodbye
take me away from your arms

Winter's long dead, lovely construction, it's all a part of you now watching them go, your ghostly possession, will always possess you

In the shadows of her eyes,
you look like God, I will be right here

When your life's been shattered

If even the stars, fall from your eyes
we fall back, they burn in the night
reach with your mind, never goodbye

Infinity lies! Save yourself!

Infinity lies! Save yourself!

Yeh!
