

Big D And The Kids Table, You're Me Now

Not even once did I turn did I turn it hit me (damn)
Not even once did I turn it hit me (damn)
It seems I keep waiting for something to happen
But nothing ever happens so I wait, nothing
So every time I get up I push up I move up
I'll get slammed down sewn down slammed down
And I don't want to be held by your stitches
And now I'm ripping up tearing out left the only standing witness
Damn what's up yeah what's up
No you can't come over are you crazy why you asking
No you can't come by are you crazy why you asking
No you can't come by never come by
Ask again and it's still no

[Chorus]
So you're me now
How does it feel?

I'm always running right into a big wall
I'm always running right into a big wall, a crazy wall
I'm always running right into a crazy wall
Seeing you whoa it's just like running right into a wall

[Chorus]
How do you feel?
