

Big & Rich, The Bob Song

(Spoken)

So I was hanging out in a very deserted place where there's white, white, white sand, and blue, blue

(Sung)

Well I once knew a pirate named Bob.

B-O-B Bob was a drunken old slob.

B-O-B Bob, 'bout as dumb as a rock

But Bob, he made it to the top.

He said "You swing from your tree

And I'll swing from mine.

You have your lemons and

I'll have my lime

Funny, we all act like monkeys sometimes

So you swing from your tree

And I'll swing from mine."

And he said "I'd rather make love

Than war.

And I'd rather have millions

Than to ever be poor

But I'd rather be happy

Than to have anymore

Guess I'm

A little tangled in a vine.

Oh, you swing from your tree

And I'll swing from mine.

You have your lemons and

I'll have my lime.

Funny, we all act like monkeys sometimes.

So you swing from your tree

And I'll swing from mine."

(Spoken: Big Kenny)

Man, let me tell ya about one of the crazy things that just happened here in the past week. We got

(John Rich)

A chicken?

(Big Kenny)

A chicken, John.

(Rich)

I like chicken.

(Big)

John, you were a chicken, I think.

(Rich)

I love cats.

(Big)

And then one of them would put some fruit on his head, look a little bit like Carmen Miranda.

(Rich)

Is that like the girl in the Chiquita Banana thing?

(Big)

And then what they would do---

(Rich)

Dude, the Chiquita Banana girl is stacked. I always thought she was hot. Anytime I was like, in ele

(Big)

But then again you liked to look at the panty section of the Sears and Roebuck magazine.

(Rich)

Who didn't?

(Big)

'Cause you're a freak.

(Rich)

Who didn't?

(Big)

Bonafide, bonafide freak. You know what my grandmother used to tell me she would do that involv

(Rich)

Oh my--

(Big)

in the outhouse, and they had a stick in the outhouse to beat the chickens---

(Rich)

Aw, sheesh.

(Big)

But anyway, I guess that's the way things used to be and things ain't quite like the way they used to

(Sung)

A white rhinosarus

White rhinosarus

(Spoken: Big)

at the San Antonio Zoo, which we must tell you is a very, very nice zoo. And now that you know a l

(Rich)

Let's rock it baby, come on.

(Big)

We can tell you, we can say

(Sung)

You swing from your tree

(Spoken)

We can say

(Sung)

I'll swing from my tree

Aw, you swing from your tree

We'll all be happy sometimes

And I'll swing from my tree

You swing from your tree

And I'll swing from my tree

And we'll all be happy sometimes

Come on

You swing from your tree

And I'll swing from my tree

And we'll all be happy sometimes.

Oh, you swing from your tree

And I'll swing from mine

You have your lemons and

I'll have my lime

It's funny, we all act like monkeys sometimes.

So you swing from your tree

And I'll swing from mine.
I'll swing from mine.
I'll swing from mine.

(Spoken: Big)

I was just trying to think of the sound that a monkey would make.
