

Big Sugar, Where I Stand

(G. Johnson/C. Johnson/K. Hoppe)

I've been haunted
'Cause I've wanted
Yes I've wanted to ask you
Would you steal
And then kneel
Like that feelings comfort you?

I've got a feeling
That you're stealing
And no healing could get through
Understand
Where I stand
And what I'm trying to say to you

I don't have
What you have
Lord, there's some things I won't do
When you're dying
No more lying
No more crying for you to do

Understand
Where I stand
What I am, what I do

Some folks say
Judgment Day
Time to pay
But when you lay
In decay
Too late to pray

Understand
Where I stand
And what I say
