Big Time Rush, No Idea

I?II love you, if you ain?t got nobody to love And girl, I?II adore you, if there?s no one to adore And I?II show you, that there?s no one to show And I?II know you, if you want somebody to know

Every time you come around You put a lighting bolt on my face Baby, every time you come around Girls, you talk my breath away And I just wanna breath, until I take you in ?Cause I want to breathe, until you take me in But the truth is

Chorus: But she has no idea, no idea That I?m even here, I?m even here She has no idea, no idea I?m standing here, I?m standing here Standing here

I?II kiss you, whenever you wanna be kissed Ooh, I?II miss you two seconds after you leave Screaming come back to me, come back to me Let me please you, let me see you Let me take that heart of yours And I?II be whatever you need me to be The good guy, bad guy Just tell me baby

Every time you come around You put a lighting bolt on my face Baby, every time you come around Girls, you take my breath away And I just wanna breath, until I take you in ?Cause I want to breathe, until you take me in But the truth is

Chorus: But she has no idea, no idea That I?m even here, I?m even here She has no idea, no idea I?m standing here, I?m standing here Standing here

Please tell me you can hear me I?m expressing my love Won?t stop ?til I get you I?m not lettin? up I?m-a run into your heart Like a kid in store Take every ounce of love, then beg you for more Beg you for more

Chorus: But she has no idea, no idea That I?m even here, I?m even here She has no idea, no idea I?m standing here, I?m standing here Standing here
