

Bilal, Love Poems

As we step form across the room
Starting to ponder what we've been goin through What does my kiss mean to you?
Are we just friends, or is this more to you
But if we label this, just picture what we might lose, that unexpected kiss the whole feelin that brought me to you
Meanwhile my feelings groooowwww
Groooowwww, etc.
But if we label this just picture what we might lose
That unexpected kiss that whole feelin that brought me to you
Why rush, why choose, why risk this thing, and ruin me and you
I want to love her and keep the friend, I wanna be near you and not pretend
But if we label this just picture what we might lose
That unexpected kiss the whole feelin that brought me to you
The whole thing has got me searchin....
