

Bill Anderson, Sad Old Shade of Gray

We've had some good we've had some bad but mostly in-between Used words like love words like hate and words we didn't mean

We've put it down we've patched it up we both have had our say

Divorce ain't black divorce ain't white just a sad ole shade of gray

Neither one of us was always right neither one was always strong
We never put I love you in the place where it belonged

When one was up the other was down and love can't grow that way

Divorce ain't black divorce ain't white just a sad ole shade of gray

You'll find a love to take my place and I'll find me someone

For when it's all been said and done more was said than done

So you take yours and I'll take mine

We'll go our separate ways

Divorce ain't black divorce ain't white just a sad ole shade of gray
Divorce ain't black divorce ain't white just a sad ole shade of gray
