

Bill Monroe & His Bluegrass Boys, I'll Meet You In

I'll meet you in the morning by the bright riverside

When all sorrow has drifted away

I'll be standin' at the portals when the gates open wide

At the close of life's long weary day

I'll meet you in the morning with a how do you do

And we'll sit down by the river and when all the rapture is renewed

You'll know me in the morning by the smile that I wear

When I meet you in the morning In the city that is built four square

I will meet you in the morning in the sweet by and by

And exchange the old cross for a crown

There will be no disappointments and nobody shall die

In that land when life's sun goeth down
