

Billie Holiday, HAVIN' MYSELF A TIME

Leo Robin / Ralph Rainger

I'm having myself a time

I mean I'm having what I want

Wanting what I have

Doing what I like

And liking what I do

And I'm having myself a time

I never could save a dime

And so I'm living like a lord

Acting like, a loon

Lying in the sun

And sighing in the moon

And I'm having myself a lime

When I hum songs

They're all dumb songs

Without reason nor rhyme

But I'm certainly in my prime

I friean I'm happy as a bird, flying up above

Walk a little love and get a little love

And I'm having myself a time

But I'm certainly in my prime

I mean I'm happy as a bird, flying up above

Walk a little love and get a little love
