

Billie Jo Spears, Thanks For Hangin' Round World

You won't believe it but one I thought I'd never see your smilin'
So I'm amazed to find that you've been standing here
Outside my front door all this time
When he went away I thought like him you forgotten bout me
Oh thanks for hangin' round world I'm gonna need your company

Well come in world I'll put on the coffee we'll talk over our old times
But we'll leave out the hurt and all the loneliness I felt when he left me behind
When he went away I thought like him you ain't nothing for me
Oh thanks for hangin' round world I'm gonna need your company
Thanks for hangin' round world I'm gonna need your company
