(Billy Corgan)

the gifts I share
the love I kept inside for you there's no one there but failed soldiers and dare we feel we shared a light that won't go out but goes on what's farther than the noonday sun?

you know I'm true
I wasn't born to follow
you know I'm true
I wasn't born to follow
you are what you are to me
you are what you are to me

I take things down
I play chess from both sides now
there's no regrets
just junk sayings
what is the price if you won't play?

you know I'm true
wasn't born to follow
wasn't born to follow
you stay with me
you stay with me when I go
you know I'm true
wasn't born to follow
yeah yeah
you know I'm true
