

Billy Crawford, Fly

I'll never forget it
The night that you broke my heart in two
You took me for granted
Hanging with somebody new
Those backward glances
I recognised it right from the start
Stolen glances
You finally broke us apart

I think the time has come
I'm gonna pick my head up and fly
Take back what's mine
I'm gonna let you go
I'm never gonna settle for less
Cause I deserve better

If you had stayed faithful
I would have never let you go
You caused so much trouble
Leaving me so alone
Cause you were always on my mind
Remembering what you might have been 24 hours
The difference between being friends

I think the time has come
I'm gonna pick my head up and fly
Take back what's mine
I'm gonna let you go
I'm never gonna settle for less
Cause I deserve it

I think the time has come
I'm gonna pick my head up and fly
Take back what's mine
I'm gonna let you go
I'm never gonna settle for less
Cause I deserve better
