

Billy Gilman, Everything And More

You never looked more beautiful
Then you look tonight
In your eyes I see all I can be
And how you changed my life
You held on when I let go
Now all I want is to let you know

(Chorus)

Your love is like a river
That runs through my heart and soul
It's deep when i'm thirsty and warm when I'm cold
And when I feel forgotten I come runnin' to your shore
And find peace in mind time after time
You give me everything and more

When tomorrow comes I can face the morning
In a different light
You can change your mind a thousand times
Nothing will ever change mine 'cause

(Chorus)

Your love is like a river
That runs through my heart and soul
It's deep when i'm thirsty and warm when I'm cold
And when I feel forgotten I come runnin' to your shore
And find peace in mind time after time
You give me everything and more

The sun will rise and the light will shine oh
Everything will be alright
Oh, yes it will 'cause

(Chorus)

Your love is like a river
That runs through my heart and soul
It's deep when i'm thirsty and warm when I'm cold
And when I feel forgotten I come runnin' to your shore
And find peace in mind time after time
You give me everything and more

You give me everything and more
