

Billy Klippert, Lindsay

Another sunset is gone, another place I don't belong
If you could hear this song oh, Lindsay what went wrong
One thousand long and lonely nights
Can someone out there save this life
You've always been my light, oh, Lindsay something's wrong

Some day far away
I'm gonna give you the world that you wanted
Lindsay don't say you're going to leave me the way
That you found me, I'm still in love

So many words so hard to say and would you hear them any way
But you're so far away, oh, Lindsay I was wrong
I'd give you my last mortal breath 'cause I was lost the day you left
You're better than all the rest, oh, Lindsay hear my song

I'm still in love with your smile with your eyes
With your sweet, sweet soul, now you're walking away
