

Billy Walker, Changed My Mind

What am I supposed to do now that we are through
I suppose to look around and find somebody new
Change my life go away pretend you never meant a thing to me
I suppose to be happy say that you play fair
I suppose to say that's life and say I didn't care
Change my mind walked away pretend you never meant a thing to me
Well how can you just sit there and say it was a fling
That all the happy times we had just didn't mean a thing
How can you start over and forget everything pretend you never meant a thing to me
[guitar]
I suppose to me cheerful greet my friends and smile
Tell them lies and deep inside I'm crying all the while Change my mind go away pretend you never meant a thing to me
Well how can you just sit there...
Pretend you never meant a thing to me pretend you never meant a thing to me
