

Binocular, Never

so just go go away 'cause I never wanna know so just run run away but the shadows take your place it's a long and lonely road if you take it take it home I knew the time was near but you had me had me wrong and if you say that you were mine then i believe that's a crime and if you live by candlelight then the faded then the faded memory lines they go away 'cause i never wanna know so just run run away but the shadows take your place

no lies could shelter you but you hide them hide them well but morning comes too soon and it's too late too late to tell and if you say, that you believed then the memories they decieve and if today you spread your wings and the feelings and the feelings never change they go away like the leaf you'll get stripped away so just run run away but the shadows still remain they still remain that day we hid behind our words until we lied that day we promised that we'd never turn away that day we slipped into the night not to be seen that day when i opened up my eyes

so just run run away but the shadows take your place so just fall fall away like the leaf you'll get stripped away so just run run away 'cause you will never you will never see my face
