Biohazard, Hallowed Ground

I'm living on hallowed ground

Right before my eyes the darkened skies hide muffeled cries Right before my eyes the hidden lies disguised as new york died Right before my eyes propaganda flies

You can run but you can't hide

Right before my eyes politicians lied to save their hide Right before my eyes ny cried way, everybody died Refuse to deny, here come the lies

I'm living on hallowed ground

Right before my eyes, ignore the cries Millions wonder why right before my eyes Justify the cries of those crucified Instead you lie, you ignore their cries

Fullfill the prophecy and kill the enemy Agree or disagree, where lies our destiny? Enemy, an effigy History for all to see Infany, irony Misery loves loyalty

Never forgive, never forget
