

Biz Markie, Busy Doing Nuthin'

[BizMarkie]

I was sittin home, all alone when I heard the ring, on my telephone I picked it up, to see who could it be
This girl I just met, her name was Tammy See I was surprised, cause she called me first
She was one of the baddest in the universe
I was just buggin cause she gave me a ring
It was a Monday, and it started off with a bang
She start the conversation over how was your weekend
I did this that and the other with my friend Monique and Shaneeda, (She need a new hairdo?) We both laughed How you long you gonna be home? I gotta take a bath so I gave I her two hours then I called her back
You know I was ready, when I rolled a headcrack Cause when I asked, can I? She cut me off so tough and I gotta call you back - aww baby, you busy doin NUTTIN
