

Bjork, My Spine

I adore
Back of necks
Beautifully shaven
Gives me
always pretty rush down my spine

All those boys
With fascinating fingers
Working creating
Touching their tools
Gives me
always, always, always, always, always,
A pretty rush down my spine

Tell me stories
Play me the tunes
That crack you up
Gives me,
Always, always, always, always, always, always, always,
A pretty rush down my spine
