

Bjork, oral (ft. rosalia)

Your mouth floats above my bed at night
My own private moon

Just because the mind can make up whatever it wants
Doesn't mean that it'll never come true
Won't ever happen (Just because she can)
Please, could I change that?

Is that the right thing to do?
Oh, I just don't know
I just don't know
Is that the right thing to do?
Oh, I just don't know
I just don't know

Let me introduce one to the other
The dream and the real, get them acquainted
Just because she can
Introduce
Just because she can
A mouth to a mouth

Is that the right thing to do?
Oh, I just don't know
I just don't know
Is that the right thing to do?
Oh, I just don't know
I just don't know

Can I just sneak up from behind
To the back of his head?
Then I lift up his hair
And nibble ever so lightly
That's where her hair starts
Just because she can
Now please, can I kiss him
Just because she can?
Yo quiero besarle
Just because she can
Come on, please, can I kiss him?
Just because she can
I just don't know, oh

Just because she can (Can)
There's a line there, I can't cross it (Ooh)
Just because she can
There's a line there, I can't cross it (Come)
Just because she can
There's a line there, I can't cross it
Just because she can (Oh, it must come)
There's a line there, I can't cross it
There's a line there, I can't cross it (Just)
There's a line there, I can't cross it
There's a line there, I can't cross it
There's a line there, I can't cross it
There's a line there, I can't cross it
