Bjork, Where Is The Line

Where is the line with you?

Where is the line with you? Where is the line with you?

Where is the line with you?

My purse wide open

You ask again

I see you trying to

Cash into accounts

Everywhere

Where is the line with you?

I want to be flexible

I want

To go out

Of my way for you

But enough is enough

Where is the line with you?

I am elastic

I want to go out of my way for you

I want to help you

Where is the line with you?

I want to have capacity for you

And be elastic, elastic, to be elastic for you

Where is the line with you?

I'm elastic for you

But enough is enough

Where is the line with you?

Where is the line with you?

Where is the line with you?

Where is the line with you?
