

Black Beat, Shine

You know I'm tired of all the games tired of all the lies the alibies
I'm ready for someone that could put some shine into my life someone real someone like you yeah and as we walk hand in hand to unravel all that's in store all that lies ahead of us I just wanna tell you I don't think I could've found anyone more special more beautiful this is how it starts baby me and you come on let's go!
