

Black Buddafly, Flashing Lights

Don't wanna let you go
Just wanna let you know
Just wanna let you know
Black Buddafly
(Flashing Lights)
Ooh yeah
Oh
Eh
Woo
You know we've been gone for a moment
Welcome back
Thank you
What's the meaning of the feeling
That I get whenever you be leaving?
Should I be cautious or falling deep in Love with you or should I just keep dreaming?
Half of my mind tells me you're the one
When the other half saying I should just go on
But when you're out on the scene you make a lady scream
But can I change from my team and be on your team eh
Love your moves son, a real man son
One whose not just hot in those pants son
Triple your moves and a conversation
And making love to you is sensational
Boy you got me hot
When you call my name and I don't know why
I want you back
Baby I admit it
The way you put it on me, tell me you want me
And as I call I know you allowed to show off
But I never thought you really would be this hot
But now I know
But now I know
Know
Now that I know you, I know you mad cool
And though its brand new I feel like I can't do Without you boy, I'm tryna keep you
Boy as long as you feel the same
All of them girls turn around and leave
When they see me they come here like who the fuck is she?
I'm the girlfriend, yes the girlfriend
And dont be hating just listen
He don't want it, he went and met ya
I'm the one, the one that'll make it clear
And if he won't like I want him to it's a wrap
And I'm gonna be good
Throw my hands up high
If you feel me you can sing this high and i know you baby, baby baby
baby
And as I call I know you allowed to show off
But I never thought you really would be this hot
But now I know
But now I know
Know
Don't wanna let you go
Just wanna let you know
Don't wanna let you go
Just wanna let you go know
