

Black Flag, Paralyzed

(YEAH...!)

Spinning down the drain again Walls closing in again Curling up inside again no way in out up down or otherwise again

i can't move
i can't speak
i can't shake these troubles off of me
i can't move
i can't speak
and i can't shake these troubles off of me

Tracking (?)in wrapped up again Shadows
Inward, turning inward again Paralyzed and going blind again

i can't speak
and i can't shake these troubles off of me
i can't move
i can't speak

i can't move and i can't speak and
i can't shake these troubles off of me
i can't move
i can't speak

wound up so tight again my soul seeps out its pores paralyzed and going blind

i can't speak
i can't move
i can't speak
and i can't shake these feelings off of me

(YEAH...!)
