

Black Label Society, Blackened Waters

And here I stand
I Find myself alone again
The miles I've walked
the loss of hope
and loss of friends
Yet I keep on running running running
and I won't look back
the waters rise
you never know just were they're at
the waters turn
yea yea
the hardships we endure
yea yea
you aint the only son or forgotten daughter
we all drown in blackend waters
the sun has set
the endless stream where nothing lasts forever damned
toady tomorrow and all the past
the waters turn
yea yea
yea yea
yea yea
we all drowned
